Meet Our Returning and New Tutors!

Julie Meurer '11- Scotch Plains, NJ. Julie Meurer is a senior from somewhere in the NJ suburbs. She is a double-major in Economics and Government, and plans to enter corporate finance after Hamilton. On the hill she keeps busy as an ASB trip leader, co-founder of Hamilton's Colleges Cancer, and member of the soccer team. Her new favorite TV show is How I Met Your Mother.

Alexander DeMoulin '12 – Portland, OR. Alexander is a junior at Hamilton from Portland, OR. He is a World Politics major with a focus in Russian Studies. Off the Hill, Alexander is a Student Intern, a Phone-a-thon caller in the Alumni Office and vice president of the Russian Club. He is also involved with Rainbow Alliance and productions in Hamilton's ballet department, and is proud to be the only male attendee of Lisa Magnarelli's CardioKick class. Alexander is also proficient in French.

Andrew Harris '11 – Scarsdale, NY. Andrew Harris is a senior who hails from Scarsdale, NY. He's majoring in history, and just returned from a semester abroad in lovely Padova, Italy. In his spare time, Andrew enjoys playing golf, doing crosswords, and playing for his IM champion soccer team. He has absolutely no idea what he wants to do after he graduates, so if you have any ideas, stop in and let him know.

Bret Lineberry '11 – Henniker, NH. Bret Lineberry, a senior from a small town in the woods of New Hampshire by the name of Henniker. Bret is a double major in Economics and World Politics, but has recently found a love for art classes! She stays busy on the Hill as a member of the Women's Ice Hockey team and Admissions Intern. She enjoys spending time with friends, playing tennis and eating peanut butter.

Kyle Mason '11 – Hamilton, NY. Kyle is a proud senior here at Hamilton. Kyle plays catcher on the Men's Varsity Baseball Team. He is originally from Hamilton, NY (which Colgate "University," our rival, also calls home) and he's lived there his entire life. Fittingly, Kyle is a Communication major, and he hopes to enter law or marketing after graduation from Hamilton.

Meet Our New Tutors!

Redwan Ibn Saleh '13- New York, NY. Although originally from Dhaka, Bangladesh until the age of seven, Redwan is from Manhattan (which is the real part of NYC you know). He is aiming to major in Government or History. Aside from working for Student Activities on campus, Redwan has worked at and is a member of the Opportunity Programs. He is also a proud member of the Muslim Student Association. He loves soccer and football over all other sports and is very passionate about his favorite teams.

Foxfire Buck '12- Wiscasset, Maine. Foxy is a junior from Maine. She is a Communication and Comparative Literature double major. Foxy is very interested in education as well, so she co-coordinates the program Drop Everything and Read (DEAR), a tutoring program at the Clinton Elementary School through HAVOC. She is also excited to study abroad in Madrid in the spring.

Trang Nguyen '12- Vietnam. Trang is from Vietnam. She plans on majoring in Philosophy and minoring in Economics, or Government. Trang really enjoys doing community service, and The Beatles always make her day. She also works as an RA in Root on the second floor. In the future Trang plans to save the world and let her husband earn a living for both of them. She likes Photography, Painting, Damien Rice, Lisa Hannigan, Jason Mraz and eating Vietnamese food. Her favorite quotation is "If not here, where? If not now, when?"

Fiona Hoffman-Harland '13 – Portland, OR. Fiona is a sophomore from Portland, OR. She is a prospective Public Policy, and Environmental Studies double major. On the hill she rows for women's crew and is a Site Coordinator for HAVOC at Loretto Utica Center retirement home. This year Fiona is a co-leader for Challah for Hunger and in her free time, she likes to bike, travel, and spend time with her friends!

Elly Field '13 – Essex, Connecticut. Elly is a sophomore from a small town in Southern Connecticut. She is expecting to major in Sociology and Math, but is still trying new things here at Hamilton. Outside of classes, Elly plays on the Women's Rugby team (Go HCWRFC!) and is a member of the Mock Trial team. When she's not running around the rugby pitch or studying in KJ, you can probably find her in McEwen eating way too much cereal, napping, or at the OCC ready to help with your presentations.

Mia Falzarano '13– New York, NY. Mia Falzarano is a sophomore from New York City and is a huge New York Yankees fan. She is an undecided major with a minor in education. On campus Mia also works at the Ropes Course. She is also part of Untitled @ Large and Gamma Xi. She loves working with children and is a camp counselor during the summer!

Jen Keefe '12- Belmont, MA. Jen hails from the exotic Boston 'burbs. You can spot her casually sipping chai in the barn at one of CAB's Acoustic Coffeehouse concerts, of which Jen is coordinator. Also, Jen plays on the women's ice hockey team and performs in Hamilton's premiere sketch comedy group, Bobby Peru. Jen is majoring in English and also loves Communication and Education Studies.

Nick Green '12- Concord, MA. Nick is a junior philosophy major from Concord, MA. He is a member of Hamilton's Mock Trial Team, serving in previous semesters as a prosecutor on Hamilton's A-Side preparing oral arguments for inter-collegiate tournaments. When not working at the OCC, you might catch behind the counter at Opus, on the radio for WHCL, or leading a trip with the Outing Club. He enjoys yo-yos, kite-flying, and croquet.
