

Fall 2016 Summary of Code of Student Conduct Violations and Sanctions

One Point:

- Fourteen students over the age of 21 received 1 point each for possession of an open container of alcohol in a public area
- Fifteen students received 1 point each for failure to comply with College officials
- Twelve students received 1 point each for disruptive behavior for repeatedly failing to reduce the level of noise and participating in a loud party in a residence hall room

Two Points:

- Thirty two students received 2 points each for possession of marijuana or drug paraphernalia
- Four students under the age of 21 received 2 points each for possession of an open container of alcohol in a public area
- Two students received 2 points each for possession of a false ID
- Two students received 2 points each for failure to comply with the directives of the late night shuttle driver or student monitor
- Three students received 2 points each for failure to comply with the directives of Campus Safety

Three Points:

- Two students received 3 points each for a second possession of marijuana violation
- One student received 3 points for violating the College's weapons policy – possession of knives with blades over 3.5 inches
- One student over the age of 21 received 3 points for violating the College's alcohol policy and possession of drug paraphernalia
- Three students received 3 points each for a second violation of the College's alcohol policy

Four Points:

- Five students received 4 points each and were charged double the cost of repair for painting the walls of a residence hall lounge without authorization
- Two students received 4 points each for stealing a lawn sign from a Village resident
- One student received 4 points for possession of marijuana and possession of a false ID
- One student received 4 points and a temporary ban on the use of the late night shuttle service for disruptive behavior on the shuttle

Five Points:

- Two students, who are also leaders of a Greek organization, received 5 points each for hazing. The hazing included reckless driving and trespassing on private property
- Two students received 5 points each for possession of marijuana and violating the College's bulk alcohol policy

- One student received 5 points for being on campus without authorization while on a status of suspension and for being disruptive at a campus event
- One student received 5 points for possession of a keg in his residence hall room
- One student received 5 points for violating the College's alcohol policy, possession of drug paraphernalia and possession of a false ID

Six Points:

- One student received 6 points for discharging a fire extinguisher in a residence hall when there was no actual fire
- One student received 6 points for forging a faculty signature on an add/drop form

Eight Points:

- One student received 8 points for making comments to other students that were threatening and intimidating

Ten Points:

- One student was suspended for one semester for altering his Hamilton College transcript
- Two students were suspended for two semesters each for submitting fraudulent documentation and attempting to receive payment from an external organization

