

2016-17 HSMB Report

The Title IX Coordinator received 22 reports of potential violations under the College's Sexual Misconduct Policy. Eight of the complainants elected to pursue formal complaints. The outcomes of the formal complaints are as follows:

- Employee was found not responsible for sexual harassment
- Student was found not responsible for a non-consensual sexual act
- Student, charged with two violations, was found not responsible for a non-consensual sexual act and responsible for a non-consensual sexual act, and was expelled
- Student was found not responsible for non-consensual sexual contact
- Student was found responsible for two non-consensual sexual acts and was expelled
- Student was found responsible for a non-consensual sexual act and was expelled
- Student was found not responsible for non-consensual sexual contact
- Student was found responsible for a non-consensual sexual act and was expelled

Below is the list of actions taken for the remaining 14 reports:

- Two students elected to have the Title IX Coordinator and Dean Landry meet with the alleged perpetrators to address the alleged behavior and to issue no contact orders
- One student elected to have the Title IX Coordinator meet with the alleged perpetrator to address the alleged behavior and to issue a no contact order
- One student elected to have the Title IX Coordinator and Fran Manfredo meet with the alleged perpetrator to address the alleged behavior and to issue a no contact order
- Two students elected to have the Title IX Coordinator and the HSMB Chair meet with the alleged perpetrators to address the alleged behavior and issue no contact orders
- Five students reported potential violations but did not wish to pursue the incidents further
- In one instance, a friend reported a potential violation but the affected student declined to report any information
- In two instances, Campus Safety reported potential violations, but the students did not wish to pursue the incidents further
- In addition, the Title IX Coordinator received three reports from students regarding behavior that may have fallen under the Harassment and Discrimination Policy. The students chose not to pursue formal complaints and the alleged behavior was addressed.

Please note that the matters referenced above may include cases with common parties.